Australia Women Win Ashes Outright At Chelmsford

SCORECARD

Australia Women went 10-2 up in the Women's Ashes and won the trophy outright after a comfortable win in the first Vitality Women's IT20 at Chelmsford.

A superb unbeaten century from Meg Lanning powered the visitors to an imposing 226-3 and in reply England were never able to get going.

Australia continued to take wickets throughout the hosts' reply and eventually ran out winners by 93 runs.

QUOTES

Heather Knight: "We're better than that. We just didn't bowl well enough.

"It's tough to take and hard to explain.

"Australia have played very well - and credit to them - but it's been a tough few weeks for us.

"We have to park this very quickly and turn things around for Hove."
