Buttler to miss Windies ODI series

England Men's white-ball captain Jos Buttler will belatedly join the upcoming tour of the Caribbean for the T20 series only as he completes his recovery from a calf injury.

Buttler will miss the three-match one-day international series against West Indies after suffering a slight setback in his rehabilitation.

Liam Livingstone will step in as captain for the ODI series with the Lancashire all-rounder set to lead England for the first time. A decision on whether to add a replacement player to the squad is still to be decided.

The squad flies out to the Caribbean early next week with Buttler to join up in Barbados ahead of the five-match T20 series, which begins on Saturday 9 November. The three-match ODI series begins in Antigua on Thursday 31 October.
