England Women moved into the top four of the standings in the ICC Women's World Cup with an emphatic victory over Pakistan in Christchurch.

Katherine Brunt returned to form with 3-17, and Pakistan never really got going after she dismissed Nahida Khan from the first ball of the innings.

England's seamers and Sophie Ecclestone (3-18) kept chipping away, aided by two run-outs, as Pakistan were bowled out for 105.

Danni Wyatt raced to 76 to see England home inside 20 overs and with it boost their run-rate to overtake India in the table. Victory over Bangladesh in England's final group game would guarantee a semi-final berth.
