Cricket Discipline Commission Hearing – Alex Davies

On 3 February, a Cricket Discipline Commission (CDC) Panel imposed a five-match ban on Alex Davies in relation to the player's historic social media posts.

Mr Davies, who had been charged with breaching ECB Directives 3.3 and 3.4, will serve an immediate one-match ban with the other four matches suspended for a two-year period from the date of the Hearing. He was also fined £1,500.

The CDC Panel was chaired by Mark Milliken-Smith QC, alongside Ricky Needham and David Murphy.

Any appeal must be made within 14 days from the date of the decision.

The full written reasons can be found here.
