England continue winning streak in Vitality Mixed Disability IT20 series

England Men's Mixed Disability 117-3 beat India Men's Mixed Disability 114-8 by seven wickets.

England Men's Mixed Disability team made it three wins on the bounce in front of the Sky Sports camera to go 5-1 up against India in their seven-match Vitality Mixed Disability IT20 series.

It was captain Callum Flynn's turn to earn Player of the Match today, making 42 from just 22 balls to get his team over the line.

India batted first and made 114-8, England chipping in with regular wickets and never allowing the visitors to get away.

Like much of the series, England proved too strong and never seemed harried, Angus Brown putting the cherry on the cake with three sixes to seal the win.

Callum Flynn said: "It's pretty special to be on Sky. We want as many people as possible to watch disability cricket and I think that's one of the best things about Mixed Disability cricket, the standard it delivers but also the exposure.

"I'm glad we were able to get another win today, a bit like Lord's it would have been a shame if we hadn't got the right result here. We've got one game left, back here at Bristol, and we want to sign off on a high. It's been hugely enjoyable to be a part of this series and I'm so proud of the lads and all their efforts."
