England Women won the final IT20 in New Zealand to secure a 3-0 series victory.

Important contributions from Sophia Dunkley - batting at No.4 in the absence of injured captain Heather Knight - and Fran Wilson took stand-in skipper Nat Sciver's side to 129-9.

In reply the wickets were shared around but Katherine Brunt set the tone with two wickets in her first over. Mady Villiers took her best international figures with 3-10, Tammy Beaumont was awarded Player of the Series.

Below is a video interview with Nat Sciver, that you're welcome to use.
