Freya Davies took four wickets as England Women won the second IT20 against New Zealand in Wellington and claimed the series.

New Zealand were in a threatening position at 84-2 before two wickets in two balls from Sarah Glenn turned the tide.

Davies then took three in her final three overs as the hosts were dismissed for 120.

Tammy Beaumont continued her fine form with 63 as England chased their target with little alarm.

Below is a video interview with Tammy Beaumont that you're welcome to use. Another video interview with Danni Wyatt will follow later today.
