Grace Scrivens to captain England Women A against New Zealand

The England & Wales Cricket Board (ECB) have announced the England Women A squads for the 50-over and T20 series against New Zealand A.

A 16-strong squad has been selected for the three 50-over fixtures, with 13 named for the three T20 matches. Essex's Grace Scrivens will captain the squad, coached by England Women Performance Batting Coach Jon 'Judge' Lewis.

Lewis said: "We're all looking forward to the series. We've selected a young and talented group of players, many of whom have gained recognition through their form for their counties in the first half of the season. It's also good to see a number of players with recent experience of playing for England Women U19s.

“New Zealand have brought over a strong A squad with a good amount of international experience so the challenge will be tough but I'm looking forward to seeing our players grab this opportunity against strong opposition.”

All games will be available to watch free on ecb.co.uk.
