Graham Thorpe leaves position as England Men's Assistant Coach

Graham Thorpe has left his position as England Men's Assistant Coach.

Andrew Strauss, Interim Managing Director, England Men's Cricket, said: "I'd like to thank Graham for his work over many years on the England coaching staff and wish him the best for the future."

Graham Thorpe said: "I've been very fortunate to have worked with so many good players and coaches who I consider my friends for life."

Arrangements for the West Indies Tour will be announced in due course.
