Luke Wells and Chris Cooke join Welsh Fire alongside Emily Windsor and Ella McCaughan

Welsh Fire have now confirmed their squads as the Vitality Wildcard selections in the men's competition and the final round of signings in the women's competition have been announced.

Vitality Blast stars Luke Wells and Chris Cooke will join Mike Hussey's Welsh Fire at Sophia Gardens this summer after excellent performances in the T20 format. Cooke will feel very at home at Cardiff while Wells is set to make his debut in the competition this year.

Emily Windsor and Georgia Davis will represent Welsh Fire this year having both previously been at Trent Rockets, Georgia Davis from Southern Brave and Kate Coppack will also make her debut in the competition.

Both teams kick off their competitions on Wednesday 2 August, hosting Manchester Originals in Cardiff.

Luke Wells said: "I'm absolutely honoured to have been given this opportunity at the Welsh Fire. An opportunity I wouldn't have dreamed of a few years ago. I can't wait to meet up with the squad and the coaching staff and I'm incredibly excited by the idea of working with Mike Hussey. Hopefully I can contribute to wins and help bring success to the team."

Emily Windsor said: "The Hundred is always a lot of fun to take part in, and it's going to be brilliant to be involved at Welsh Fire. We're really looking forward to coming together as a team and hopefully getting all of Wales behind us."

Other names signed in the Vitality Wildcard Draft include Tawanda Muyeye, who joins Chappell at Oval Invincibles, John Turner – who heads to Trent Rockets, and England seamer Matt Fisher, who joins Southern Brave.

Trent Rockets and Southern Brave will go head-to-head on Tuesday 1 August, the opening matchday of the third year of The Hundred. The double-header is the first of 34 matchdays that promise high-octane men's and women's sporting action, live music, and a host of family-friendly entertainment.

Over half a million people attended games during The Hundred's second year in 2022, including a record-breaking 271,000 watching live women's fixtures across the competition and more families buying tickets than in 2021.

Tickets are selling fast for this season, and remain great value, with prices set at £5 for juniors aged 6-15, free for children five and under, and adults starting from £10.

Over 14.1 million people tuned in to watch The Hundred action in 2022 and games will again be broadcast live on Sky Sports and BBC broadcast and digital channels throughout the competition.✉
