Maxwell, Dottin, Warner, Healy and Russell among players in The Hundred Draft

International superstars Glenn Maxwell, Deandra Dottin, Sophie Devine, David Warner, Andre Russell and Alyssa Healy are some of the big names available to teams in The Hundred Draft, scheduled to take place on Wednesday 12 March.

The big name overseas stars are joined by a group of top-class domestic names also vying to be picked ahead of the fifth year of the competition, including Jamie Overton, Sophia Dunkley, Issy Wong, Rehan Ahmed and Reece Topley.

England Men's legend James Anderson is also among the names available, as is young Lancashire batter Rocky Flintoff.

The sixteen men's and women's teams have already retained a number of players from last year's squads, and will now fill up the remainder of their available squad places through The Hundred Draft.

In the men's competition, London Spirit will have the first pick. In the women's competition, Birmingham Phoenix will pick first.

The Hundred Draft will be available to follow at www.thehundred.com/draft from 3.30pm on Wednesday 12 March.

The Hundred returns for its fifth year at Lord's on 5 August with a London derby between London Spirit and Oval Invincibles kicking off another year of world-class cricket and blockbuster entertainment.

The general sale period for the fifth year of The Hundred begins from 17 April. Tickets continue to be great value, with prices set at £5 for juniors aged 3-15 (free for under 3s) and adults starting from £12.
