Naomi Dattani one of four confirmed Trent Rockets signings

The first signings of the open market stage in The Hundred women's competition have been confirmed with all-rounder Naomi Dattani one of four players announced to be joining Trent Rockets.

Dattani, previously of London Spirit, is joined at Trent Bridge by Josie Groves, Emma Jones and Alexa Stonehouse.

Across the eight teams, 26 signings have been announced with Groves and Stonehouse two of the six stars of England Women's U19 World Cup team among the list, as well as Australian all-rounder Erin Burns, WPL break-out star Tara Norris and Scottish leg-spinner Abtaha Maqsood.

Through the retention window and The Hundred Draft, powered by Sage, held in March, each team signed eight players, leaving seven slots to fill in the Open Market Stage.

The final 30 signings in the women's competition, and the final three member of Trent Rockets' squad, will be confirmed alongside The Vitality Wildcard picks in the men's competition, due to be announced 6 July/7 July.

NOTES TO EDITORS

About The Hundred:ⓧ

The Hundred is an action-packed, unmissable cricket competition that fuses world-class cricket with blockbuster entertainment.ⓧ

Combining a short, fast format of cricket, with each game lasting less than three hours, and incredible entertainment beyond the sport, The Hundred is making cricket more accessible and reaching a broader audience. It's simple: 100 balls per team, most runs wins, so every ball counts.ⓧⓧ

The Hundred features eight teamsⓧfrom sevenⓧcities, with men's and women's competitions taking place side by side:ⓧ Welsh Fire (Cardiff), Southern Brave (Southampton), Northern Superchargers (Leeds), London Spirit, Trent Rockets (Nottingham), OvalⓧInvincibles (London), Manchester Originals and Birmingham Phoenix. Each teams featuresⓧsome of theⓧbest international and domestic cricketers from around the world, including England Men's & Women's World Cup winners.ⓧ

Highlight statistics from The Hundred 2022:ⓧ

- More than 500,000 people attended games across the course of the competitionⓧ
- The Hundred continued to take cricket to new audiences with more women (28%), children (22%) and families (41%) attending than in the first yearⓧ
- 2022 once again set a new global record for total attendance at a women's cricket competition, with 271,000 people attendingⓧⓧ
- All eight venues broke their previous best for domestic women's attendances
- Of the Sky and BBC TV coverage, 42% hadn't watched any other ECB cricket in 2022 prior to The Hundred, resulting in 5.9m new viewers
- Women (31%) and children (14%) made up a significant share of the TV audience
