New Zealand win third Royal London International

New Zealand Women 181-7 beat England Women 178 by three wickets

New Zealand won the third Royal London International at Leicester to leave the series poised at 2-1 with two games to play.

England could only post 178 - thanks mainly to their lower order, particularly Katherine Brunt who made 49 - and New Zealand chased their target down with three wickets in hand.

Brunt was England's star with the ball, taking her 300th international wicket on her way to 4-22, but Leah Tahuhu's 5-37 and Maddy Green's unbeaten 70 were enough for the visitors.
