Official statement - Ben Duckett

Following a disciplinary hearing with England Lions player Ben Duckett, ECB can confirm the following measures have been placed on the player.

- Fined the maximum allowable amount for an England Lions player.
- Suspended from playing for the rest of the current Lions Australian training camp.
- Issued with a final written warning in respect of his conduct as an England player.

Duckett will remain with the England Lions party in Australia and will return to England at the end of the camp on 17 December.

The ECB will not make any further comment.
