Oval Invincibles confirm return of Gray, MacDonald-Gay and Chathli

The first signings of the open market stage in The Hundred women's competition have been confirmed with Eva Gray, Ryana MacDonald-Gay and Kira Chathli all returning to holders Oval Invincibles.

Across the eight teams, 26 signings have been announced with MacDonald-Gay one of the six stars of England Women's U19 World Cup team among the list, as well as Australian all-rounder Erin Burns, WPL break-out star Tara Norris and Scottish leg-spinner Abtaha Maqsood.

Through the retention window and The Hundred Draft, powered by Sage, held in March, each team signed eight players, leaving seven slots to fill in the Open Market Stage.

The final 30 signings in the women's competition will be confirmed, including the last four members of Oval Invincibles squad, alongside The Vitality Wildcard picks in the men's competition, due to be announced 6 July/7 July.

Oval Invincibles: Eva Gray, Ryana MacDonald-Gay, Kira Chathli

Birmingham Phoenix: Abtaha Maqsood, Erin Burns, Chloe Brewer, Sterre Kalis

London Spirit: Grace Scrivens, Tara Norris, Niamh Holland

Manchester Originals: Liberty Heap, Phoebe Graham, Fi Morris

Northern Superchargers: Marie Kelly, Aylish Cranstone, Phoebe Franklin

Southern Brave: Georgia Adams, Rhianna Southby, Danielle Gregory

Trent Rockets: Josie Groves, Emma Jones, Naomi Dattani, Alexa Stonehouse

Welsh Fire: Alex Griffiths, Claire Nicholas, Sarah Bryce

Jon Batty's Oval Invincibles side will begin the defence of their trophy at neighbours London Spirit on Wednesday 2 August, the day after a double-header at Trent Bridge on Tuesday 1 August kicks off the third year of The Hundred – the first of 34 matchdays that promise high-octane men's and women's sporting action, live music, and a host of family-friendly entertainment.

More than half a million people attended games during The Hundred's second year in 2022, including a record-breaking 271,000 watching live women's fixtures across the competition and more families buying tickets than in 2021.

Tickets are selling fast and are available here. Tickets this year remain great value in line with 2022 pricing, with prices set at £5 for juniors aged 6-15, free for children five and under, and adults starting from £10.🏏🏏🏏

Ryana MacDonald-Gay said: "I'm delighted to be returning to Oval Invincibles. I absolutely loved playing in The Hundred last year and it's going to be brilliant to get back out there in front of our fans at The Kia Oval. We've kept a lot of the group together who helped us win last year and we'll be doing everything we can to defend our trophy this year."

Over 14.1 million people tuned in to watch The Hundred action in 2022 and games will again be broadcast live on Sky Sports and BBC broadcast and digital channels throughout the competition.🏏🏏

NOTES TO EDITORS

About The Hundred:🏏

The Hundred is an action-packed, unmissable cricket competition that fuses world-class cricket with blockbuster entertainment.🏏

Combining a short, fast format of cricket, with each game lasting less than three hours, and incredible entertainment beyond the sport, The Hundred is making cricket more accessible and reaching a broader audience. It's simple: 100 balls per team, most runs wins, so every ball counts.🏏🏏

The Hundred features eight teams🏏from seven🏏cities, with men's and women's competitions taking place side by side:🏏 Welsh Fire (Cardiff), Southern Brave (Southampton), Northern Superchargers (Leeds), London Spirit, Trent Rockets (Nottingham), Oval🏏Invincibles (London), Manchester Originals and Birmingham Phoenix. Each teams features🏏some of the🏏best international and domestic cricketers from around the world, including England Men's & Women's World Cup winners.🏏

Highlight statistics from The Hundred 2022:🏏

- More than 500,000 people attended games across the course of the competition🏏
- The Hundred continued to take cricket to new audiences with more women (28%), children (22%) and families (41%) attending than in the first year🏏
- 2022 once again set a new global record for total attendance at a women's cricket competition, with 271,000 people attending🏏🏏
- All eight venues broke their previous best for domestic women's attendances
- Of the Sky and BBC TV coverage, 42% hadn't watched any other ECB cricket in 2022 prior to The Hundred, resulting in 5.9m new viewers
- Women (31%) and children (14%) made up a significant share of the TV audience
