Squad announced for England Men's Physically Disabled quad series

England Men's Physically Disabled team have announced their squad for the upcoming quad series against Sri Lanka, India and Pakistan.

Head Coach Chris Highton has named a 15-strong group, for what will be England Men PD's first series since their narrow 3-2 series defeat in India in March.

The series will see England play six times, twice each against hosts Sri Lanka,

India and Pakistan respectively, with the top two competing in the final.

Alex Hammond (Hawks)

Angus Brown (Black Cats)

Anthony Clapham (Pirates)

Ben Sutton (Tridents)

Brendon Parr (Pirates)

Callum Flynn (Hawks, captain)

Fred Bridges (Pirates)

Hugo Hammond (Hawks)

James Nordin (Tridents)

Jamie Goodwin (Hawks)

Jordan Williams (Pirates)

Liam O'Brien (Tridents)

Liam Thomas (Pirates)

Sammy Kumar (Tridents)

Will Flynn (Tridents)

Captain Callum Flynn said: "We can't wait to get out to Sri Lanka for this series. It will be great to play against three nations, it will be a great test of where we are as a group and we'll be doing everything we can to make it all the way through to the final."

“We came pretty close in India but we couldn’t quite get over the line so we need to go one step further this time round. We’re also at a point now where players will begin to want to put their hands up for selection for next summer’s Pan-Disability series against India, which I think will add something really exciting for the group.”
